CABLE ADDRESS "MELOPOEIA"

Jan. 11, 1928.

Dear Mr. Noë,

I am enclosing my list of bids for the Lugano sale, and if you can forward it to Mr. Sprink, I shall be much obliged. Perhaps he will think it a good deal of a nuisance to bother with so many small bids. Next time I shall probably follow a different plan, and select a few coins that I particularly covet, and am willing to pay substantial prices for. I do not expect to get half of the coins specified - perhaps not a quarter of them.

Thanking you for your trouble, I am, very sincerely,

Fred. M. Herrick.

P.S. Either now, or at some other convenient time, would you order a copy of Haude's book on Magna Graecia for me? I believe Sprink publishes it (in paper covers) for 5 s. -

Mr. Frederick M. Herrick,

Dear Mr. Herrick:

Your letter of the 11th is at hand,
and I will forward your list of bids to Spink, as you request.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

26th January, 1926

Mr. Frederick M. Herrick,
22 William Street,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Herrick:

I enclose a cablegram from Spink regarding your bids. I feel that you need not hesitate to take their advice. I do not fully understand just how they will manage this, but presume it would be a matter of their purchasing pieces which went at a reasonable figure and allowing you to decline them in case you did not care to pay that figure. If you care to telephone me tomorrow (Friday), I can write them, or if you prefer to wait until Saturday I think there will still be time to get a letter to them before the sale.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Mr. F. M. Herrick,
22 Exchange Place,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Herrick:

As we foresaw, Spink have sent the first of the two packages containing your coins in my care. Will you want them before Saturday?

We opened the package to learn what it contained, and Mr. Newell seems to think that you have fared very well indeed and his judgment was based on the supposition that he had seen the entire lot rather than only the first portion of it. I have been absent for a day, but the small portion at which I looked is decidedly interesting, and I feel sure that you are going to be much pleased with your experience.

Very truly yours,

I ask you to enclose with this letter a short note to identify me? You are quite at liberty to look at my letter before forwarding it.

Thanking you for your trouble, I am

Gentlemen:

At the request of Mr. Herrick, one of our members, I am writing this brief note of introduction. As you will see from his letter, he is not collecting expensive Greek coins, but he is bringing together a selection of the pieces which do not cost a fortune. I shall appreciate anything you may be able to do to help him.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Mr. Herrick:

Your letter of December 11th is at hand, and this is merely an acknowledgment. I shall have Mr. Newell look them over when he comes in again and make such notes of what he may say about them as I think will interest you. We can compare notes then when you come on the 21st.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

Frederick M. Herriek, Esq.

Dear Mr. Herriek:

Mr. Newell, in looking for his copy of Clerk's "Coins of the Achaean League", mentioned that he thought he had loaned it to you. If this is correct and if you are now through with the volume, we should be glad to have it for one of our workers who desires it in connection with a hoard he is studying.

We have missed you Saturdays for the last few weeks and hope you have not been on the sick list.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.
